CARTER
CENTER WEEKEND

PRESIDENT AND MRS. CARTER'S
2019 CARTER CENTER WEEKEND

President and Mrs. Carter appreciate the many gifts they have received from around the world. Since there is not enough space at The Carter Center to display all of them, a few of these items are made available through this special event to support the work of The Carter Center. Values expressed in this catalog represent certified appraisals, estimates based on sales of comparable items at previous auctions, or sales of similar items from Internet sites such as eBay. Any amount paid above the stated value will be considered a donation to The Carter Center and will be tax-deductible. You can see these items online at our website: www.cartercenter.org.

Photographs of most auction items were taken by Katie Archibald-Woodward.

1. "THE FORGOTTEN RAINFOREST" PETRO SILKSCREEN

Self-taught artist Joe Petro III rejects conventional rules and restrictions, learning solely through experimentation. Skilled in various media such as bronze, clay, and handmade paper, he is an accomplished sculptor as well as a master printmaker. This color silkscreen titled "The Forgotten Rainforest" displays a rich and vibrant rainforest against a violet night sky. The silkscreen is signed and numbered (11 of 25) in pencil by the artist. Measures 25¼ inches by 37 inches.

Donor(s): Mr. Joe Petro III

Value: $1,200.00 Winning bid: $400.00

2. COLLECTIBLES FROM BRAZIL

A medallion, key, and doll are featured in this collection of items from Brazil. The copper and brass medallion displays the seal of the city of Rio de Janeiro molded in low relief and rests in a conforming velvet and wood case. It measures 5⅝ inches in diameter. One side of the 5-inch-long brass key also bears the city emblem. The other is inscribed "Prefeitura da Cidade do Rio de Janeiro." The medallion and key were given to the Carters during a visit in the 1980s. A 14-inch-tall doll, dressed in brightly colored traditional Brazilian-style clothing, completes the set.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $300.00 Winning bid: $300.00

3. "SIGHTLESS AMONG MIRACLES" WATERCOLOR

This watercolor was created to mark the 25th anniversary of The Carter Center. The painting features the bronze statue titled "Sightless Among Miracles." Located on the grounds of The Carter Center, the piece is a representation of a child using a stick to lead around an older person suffering from river blindness. At the bottom of the painting is an inscription in faded pencil that reads "To President and Mrs. Carter. Thank you for your inspiration!" The artist's name appears with the inscription but is faded and difficult to read.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $200.00 Winning bid: $1,500.00

4. COLLAR NECKLACE

Auction favorite Lise Libby has done it again! This collar necklace brings glitz to your everyday or evening look. The piece is designed with gold-plated lava and gold pyrite. Titled “Sienna,” it measures approximately 16½ inches. For more information about the artist visit www.liselibby.com.

Donor(s): Ms. Lise O’Haire

Value: $95.00 Winning bid: $350.00

5. COLOMBIAN SILVER-PLATED TRAY

This stunning hammered silver-plated tray features the coat of arms of the Republic of Colombia and the inscription “Juan Manuel Santos, Presidente de Colombia 2010–2014.” It was presented to President Carter during a meeting in Bogota in 2013.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $100.00

Winning bid: $400.00

6. CHINESE SHU PANDA EMOIDERY

This scene of panda bears beneath a tree is a beautiful example of Chinese double-sided silk embroidery, which is so skillfully created that either side can be considered the front. It is mounted in a round wooden frame with glass on both sides that pivots on its crescent-shaped stand to permit easy viewing. The frame and 12-inch-tall stand rest on a matching base that is 12 inches wide. The work of art comes with a decorative storage box.

Donor(s): Mr. Li Xiaohua

Value: $300.00 Winning bid: $625.00

7. ATLANTA BRAVES GAME PACKAGE

A home run for the winning bidder, this package includes four VIP box tickets to attend an Atlanta Braves 2019 regular-season home game, a valet parking pass, and unlimited food and beverages served in the SunTrust club. In addition, you will receive a handsome paperweight that resembles the rings given to players on a championship sports team. The stylized “A” of the Braves logo and the phrase “Atlanta Braves” appear on the front of this brass replica, which is officially licensed to Pro Team Paperweights by Balfour. Received in November 2013, it is 1⅓ inches wide, 1½ inches deep, and in excellent condition. A Delta Air Lines gift card valued at $800.00 to be used toward airfare purchased either at delta.com, at the airport, via telephone, or with Delta Vacations completes the package.

Follow the instructions on the certificate to schedule your outing, and have alternate dates in mind.

Donor(s): The Carter Center, Mr. Ted Turner, Delta Air Lines, Inc.

Value: $1,000.00 Winning bid: $3,000.00

8. VANDERBILT MEDALLION

This bronze medallion has the profile of Cornelius Vanderbilt on the obverse and the Vanderbilt University seal on the reverse. An inscription engraved around the rim reads “Presented to President Jimmy Carter at Impact Symposium 1986 by Vanderbilt University.” The 3-inch-diameter medallion is in excellent condition.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $75.0 Winning bid: $1,002.00

9. “LADY ROSALYNN” MIXED-MEDIA ARTWORK

This creative mixed-media piece by Sandra Tapp Booker combines photography and drawing. The image depicts a woman wearing a beautiful dress with a skirt that is composed of a large rose. The inscription on the back contains the artist’s signature and the title of the work, “Lady Rosalynn.”

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $75.00 Winning bid: $400.00

10. ETHIOPIAN TABLEWARE SET

A 24-piece set of stainless steel tableware from Ethiopia commemorates the obelisks of Axum. The handles of the flatware resemble the mysterious creations, which typically have two false doors at the base and feature decorations resembling windows on all sides. Each monument is carved from a single, solid block of weather-resistant stone that is believed to have come from a quarry several miles south of the city of Axum. All items fit neatly in the red storage box that accompanies the tableware. The cover is decorated with an artist’s rendering of men and beasts working together to erect one of the giant sculptures.

Donor(s): The Carter Center

Value: $50.00 Winning bid: $1,500.00

11. 2018 BASEBALL HALL OF FAME MEMORABILIA

Six former big-league heroes, including Atlanta’s own Chipper Jones, were inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018. This assortment of collectibles from the Cooperstown activities features photographs and other memorabilia celebrating the 2018 honorees. The lot includes a copy of “Memories and Dreams,” the official magazine of the Hall of Fame; a button, like those used in political campaigns, that lists the last names of all six; and a challenge coin, featuring the official logo of the Hall of Fame, which is framed with photographs of the inductees.

Donor(s): Ms. Carol Swarbrick and Mr. Jim Dries

Value: $200.00 Winning bid: $90.00

12. CHINESE DOLL

Standing 14 inches tall, this Chinese doll is robed in turquoise and pink crepe fabric and decorated in costume jewelry. With a painted face and elaborately decorated hair, she is very elegant. The doll was given to Amy Carter in the early 1980s. Some of the fabric shows minor fraying.

Donor(s): The Carter Center
Value: $100.00
Winning bid: $150.00

14. ACOMA POTTERY COLLECTION

Standing approximately 6 inches tall, the hand-crafted Acoma Pueblo wedding vase that is the cornerstone of this collection was made in 1971 using traditional methods. Historically, the vase was used during a wedding ceremony. On the day of the wedding, the bride and groom would first drink separately from the vessel and then attempt it together. Their ability to do so without spilling was interpreted as a sign of a strong union. A snapshot of the artist accompanies the vase. To round out the collection there are two more modern Native American miniatures: one depicts a sleeping cat, and the other is a small pot. Both come with wooden stands.

Donor(s): Ms. Donna Moser Peak
Value: $150.00 Winning bid: $350.00

13. EMORY UNIVERSITY COMMEMORATIVE PLATE

President Carter launched The Carter Center from an office on the 10th floor of the Robert W. Woodruff Library on the campus of Emory University in September 1982, and the two organizations remain partners today. This round porcelain plate has a slightly raised rim and features the seal of Emory University in the center. The gold emblem is round and appears inside a white circle that is surrounded by Emory blue. The rim of the plate is decorated with symbols of gold that match the seal in the center. It was given to the Carters by Dr. James T. Laney, who served as president of the institution from 1977 to 1993, and his wife, Berta. The plate is 10³/₈ inches in diameter and comes with a presentation box.

Donor(s): The Carter Center
Value: $100.00 Winning bid: $950.00

15. JERUSALEM COPPER PLATE

This copper and brass plate celebrates the peace that President Carter helped establish between Egypt and Israel. It is a replica of the original that was presented to Carter during his visit to Akko. The plate bears an inscription in Hebrew and English that reads “Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.” Displayed on the plate is a dove carrying an olive branch, both of which are symbols of peace. Each of the dove’s wings has the word “Shalom” on it, one in Hebrew letters and the other in English. The right side of the plate displays the Western Wall of the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, the middle shows the entrance to a mosque, and on the very left a church is visible. The plate measures about 12 inches in diameter.

Donor(s): Mr. John Cabral
Value: $100.00 Winning bid: $475.00

16. MICHAEL LALONE VASE

For over 20 years, Michael Lalone has been working with clay. He started by taking a teacher recertification course and never looked back. Lalone has won several awards for his excellence in teaching, and his work has appeared in various publications about clay. This decorative vase stands 8 inches tall and at its widest point is 8 inches in diameter. It has a 1¼-inch-long neck with a 1½-inch-diameter opening. The light clay-colored hue of the bottom of the bowl provides an impressive background for the blue ash glaze around the neck and shoulders of the vessel. Lalone's signature appears on the bottom of the piece.

Donor(s): Mr. Michael Lalone

Value: $80.00 Winning bid: $560.00

18. NIGERIAN TEXTILE WALL HANGING

Leather is used for the background, inscription, border, and colorful accents on this 24-inch-diameter wall hanging from Nigeria. Off-white, yellow, green, and black stitching is used to create colorful flower-like designs, a replica of the African nation's flag, and a version of the Carter Center's eagle on a dark red background with a white border. The inscription reads "Congratulations to The Carter Center celebrating 30 Yrs. Waging Peace

Fighting Disease, Building Hope."

Donor(s): The Carter
Center

Value: $100.00

Winning bid: $400.00

17. JOE DIMAGGIO BASEBALL CARD

Legendary Joseph Paul DiMaggio played his entire 13-year career in Major League Baseball for the New York Yankees. This Pinnacle brand card from opening day 1948 is signed by DiMaggio and shows him kicking up dust as he slides into base. A depiction of the Yankee Stadium frieze appears on the mat above the card, which also has the full-color Yankees logo and a printed image of DiMaggio's signature on the right.

Donor(s): Mr. Joseph Reilly

Value: $300.00 Winning bid: $2,300.00

19. RUSSIAN PRINT AND PALEKH LACQUER BOX

An artwork collage commemorates the father-and-son duo of Yefim Alekseyevich Cherepanov and Miron Yefimovich Cherepanov. The two are famous for making Russia's first steam locomotive, and their factory is now a Russian historical landmark in Nizhny Tagil. Created by an unknown artist, the framed print measures 9½ inches by 15 inches and was presented to Mrs. Carter at the Russian Friendship Force program in Atlanta. With it you will receive a handmade black lacquer keepsake box from the small Russian town of Palekh. An image depicting a scene from Stravinsky's "Firebird" is painted on the top of the box. The bottom is stamped with the phrase "Made in USSR."

Donor(s): The Carter Center and Ms. Donna Moser Peak

Value: $200.00 Winning bid: $380.00

20. "THE WALKING DEAD" PRINTS AND HAT

There is a zombie right behind you! Just kidding. In this collection, the winning bidder will receive a hat and multiple signed prints, including cover art from issues No. 1 and No. 150, created by "The Walking Dead" artist Tony Moore. Each print measures 17 inches by 11 inches and features prominent character Rick Grimes. "The Walking Dead" comic book series was first published in 2003. As one of the co-creators, Moore handled the art duties. The prints are signed by Moore, who has also included an inscription dedicating them to President and Mrs. Carter.

Donor(s): Mr. Tony Moore
 Value: $300.00
 Winning bid: $400.00

21. SIGNED COPY OF BOOK BY MICHAEL BESCHLOSS

In "Presidents of War," historian, Pulitzer prize winner, and television commentator Michael Beschloss uses original letters, diaries, declassified documents, and interviews to bring us into the room and into the minds of a procession of chief executives who took the nation into major conflicts, mobilized Americans for victory, and seized greater power for themselves. This copy of the book was signed by Beschloss in October 2018 at an event hosted by The Jimmy Carter Library and Museum.

Donor(s): Mr. Michael Beschloss

31. SET OF PHOTOGRAPHS FROM BHUTAN

Offered in this lot is a rich and vibrant collection of photographs taken by Gail Shore in Bhutan, a small Himalayan kingdom. Each print measures 15 inches by 20 inches. Shore's photography centers on diverse peoples around the world. Her nonprofit, Cultural Jambalaya (www.culturaljam.org), celebrates various cultures by using international photography to promote understanding and respect for all humanity. Full captions accompany each image.

"Bhutan's Shangri-la" was taken in Punakha Valley, Bhutan. Surrounded by Tibet and India, Bhutan is stable, peaceful, and fiercely independent. Imagine a place with almost no pollution, litter, crime, or political problems; where everyone has a job, and a home, and is seemingly happy.

"Prayer Flags of Bhutan" was taken in Thimphu, Bhutan. Bhutanese prayer flags are inscribed with auspicious symbols, invocations, prayers, and mantras. The wind carries these messages across the countryside, supposedly bringing happiness, long life, and prosperity.

"Spinning the Prayer Wheel" was taken in Thimphu, Bhutan. The job of the perfectly content Bhutanese man shown here is to turn the colorful prayer wheel. Bhutan is a unique treasure on the planet because it puts its culture and environment before economic development. It is not interested in industrial growth as much of the world knows it.

Donor(s): Ms. Gail D. Shore
Value: $600.00 Winning bid: $700.00

32. 2010 WORLD EXPOSITION SHANGHAI MEMORABILIA

"Better City, Better Life" was the theme of the 2010 World Exposition in Shanghai, China," which took place May 1–Oct. 31, 2010. More than 73 million people including President and Mrs. Carter visited over the course of the expo. This set offers you the opportunity to own memorabilia from the historic festival. First is a glass statue of the festival's mascot, Haibao (海宝). The name Haibao translates roughly to "jewel of the sea." Next in the collection is a pair of copper medallions, one gold-plated and the other silver-plated. They come in a presentation box along with a collector certificate that lists them as No. 02474 of 60,000 sets in circulation. Fun fact about this expo: The theme song for the event was performed by none other than Jackie Chan!

58. ANTIQUE PORTABLE WOODEN WRITING BOX

Portable writing boxes or lap desks became popular in the late 18th century, when having the ability to write on the go was a luxury. This one has a stunning green leather writing surface that complements its beautiful and sturdy wood construction. The piece also has several compartments that would have been used to hide valuables or to store inkwells, sealing wax, and writing materials. When closed, it measures 6 inches tall, 15 inches wide, and 9 inches deep.

Donor(s): Ms. Denise Bomberger
Value: $200.00 Winning bid: $2,100.00

60. LOW ARABESQUE BALLERINA SCULPTURE

After attending the Carter Center Weekend two years ago, artist Donna McCarthy-Jensen has now donated a handmade statue for the auction. The sculpture stands 14 inches tall and shows a ballerina in a pose known as low arabesque. Each section of the figure is individually sculpted in clay, covered with a copper glaze, and raku-fired, a process in which pieces are removed from the kiln as they are still glowing hot and placed into an easily combustible medium, like sawdust. This blackens raw clay and causes crazing in the glaze surface.

Donor(s): Ms. Donna McCarthy-Jensen
Value: $450.00 Winning bid: $2,600.00

59. "HUMBLE TRACKS" DRAWING

Now a museum, the Plains Train Depot is devoted to the history of the Carter presidential campaign, for which it served as the headquarters.

The structure, with elements of nature but no other buildings around it, is captured in this black-and-white ink-on-paper sketch. The 17-inch by 14-inch drawing is unframed and in excellent condition. You will find the artist's name (V.L. Tondee), along with the date (1983), in the grass at the bottom right of the drawing.

64. "ROBBY THE ROBOT" PETRO SILKSCREEN

Artwork by Joe Petro III has been featured on various television shows and in movies. He is also listed in "Who's Who in American Art." This hand-printed original silkscreen titled "Robby the Robot" was produced by Petro in 1987 and depicts the famous robot on a vibrant moonscape. The piece measures 21¾ inches by 29 inches and is signed and numbered (91 of 150) by the artist. The inscription reads "Especially for President and Mrs. Carter."

Donor(s): Mr. Joe Petro III
Value: $500.00 Winning bid: $225.00

63. GOLDEN MINIATURE JAPANESE PALANQUIN

Displayed on two gold-finished, sawhorse-shaped stands, this decorative model of a Japanese palanquin is made of goldtone and black-finished metals and adorned with red polyester corded tassels. It is crafted with elaborate details. A palanquin was a human-powered mode of transportation for carrying people. The enclosure on this miniature resembles a Japanese shrine with doors, railings, a scrolling roof, and tassels with brass bells. A gift from Ryoichi Sasakawa, former chairman of the Nippon Foundation in Japan, the 10-inch-tall piece is 13¼ inches long and in excellent condition.

Donor(s): The Carter Center
Value: $500.00 Winning bid: $350.00

65. STAR WARS COLLECTION

A collection of memorabilia from the world-famous "Star Wars" phenomenon starts with a life-size talking Yoda doll! The 24-inch-tall figure is made by Underground Toys, a leading creator, manufacturer, and distributor of licensed products around the globe. Press Yoda's belly and you will hear several phrases from the movies, in the character's distinctive voice. Next in the lot is a collection of action figures from the second film in the original trilogy, "The Empire Strikes Back." The 24 miniatures come in their own carrying case, and all are posable and in good condition. The last item in the lot is a snowspeeder spacecraft, also from "The Empire Strikes Back." This is a fully loaded collection. Bid on me, you must!
