

Strengthening Liberia's Behavioral Health System

The Carter Center has engaged multiple sectors in Liberia in the provision of mental health and psychosocial support. The growing number of health advocates and champions, as well as mental health infrastructure and resources, is illustrated below:

7

School-based clinics
established

45

Health facilities supported to provide community-based mental health services, supervision, monitoring, & evaluation

73

Pharmacists trained in psychopharmacology

111

Law enforcement officers and cadets received
crisis intervention
team training

130

Journalists trained in responsible mental health
reporting

162

Users of mental health services and caregivers trained on antistigma knowledge

235

Faith and traditional leaders trained on mental health awareness
and stigma
reduction

301

Teachers and administrators trained in identifying needs, providing mental health support, and neuroscience

342

Mental health
clinicians trained 120 trained in child
and adolescent care